

AUDIENCE SURVEY

TEST

I gathered three close people in my life to watch all four of my videos. I selected an expert user, a moderate user, and an inexperienced user, to see each perspective.

I then asked them the following ten questions.

1. Are the videos interesting?
2. Am I mumbling/ hard to understand/ talking too fast?
3. Is the audio clear?
4. Are my statements clear?
5. Are there issues with editing?
6. How is the length of the videos?
7. Should I add more information?
8. Are the thumbnails clear?
9. Is the background distracting?
10. Would you subscribe?

TEST

The results were very helpful in determining if I needed to reshoot any of the videos. Luckily, only minor improvements were needed to make the videos a little bit better.
